FORWARD

This school as any other school is engaged in the task of helping to prepare the students to go out into the world. One of the main factors it dwells on is to teach each student the fundamentals of citizenship. Responsibility plays an important part in the teaching of citizenship and in helping to mold our future citizens.

We feel that the school has an obligation to the state and national government as well as a privilege provided for us by them.

It is a sincere hope of the Senior class of 1950-51 that communism never gets a foot-hold in the United States because we feel that there is no place for it and that it would impair the training of future citizens.

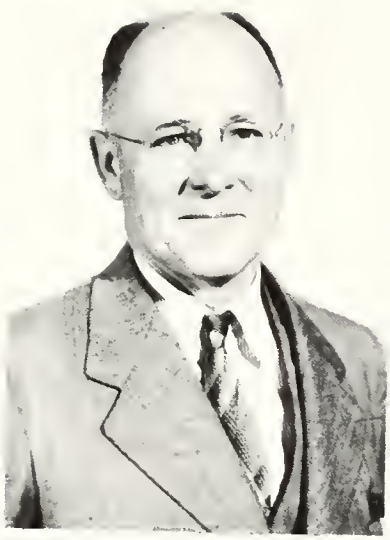
WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO



MR. H. C. WEATHERS

We, the Senior Class of 1951 in great appreciation, dedicate this book to Mr. H. C. Weathers, who has taught us for five years. He has been very helpful and understanding in our work. He is our co-sponsor and faculty advisor or our year book.

WHAT OUR SCHOOL MEANS TO OUR COMMUNITY

How much is our school worth? Is it worth the monetary value of the building, grounds, and equipment which amounts to about $100,000?

A farm or factory is valued by their products or output. A school should be valued the same way. Not on the standpoint of how modern the building is and where it is located but by the quality and quantity of the students that graduate from it.

This year our school turns out fourteen Seniors ready to assume adult responsibilities. We say they are ready for adult responsibilities because they have had a well-rounded education.

A student graduating from high school has a much better chance of getting a good job and advancing to the top than a boy or girl who gives up and drops out of school. The first thing most employers ask a person applying for a job is, "Did you graduate from high school?" A boy or girl who can't answer "Yes" to this question often gets a very hard job with low pay and more often gets turned down. A Senior who graduates from high school earns about $800 more a year than a person who quits school. In this school there are 217 other pupils being brought step by step to their Senior year. They too will become Seniors with increased earning power.

But this is only from a monetary standpoint.

Future citizenship, habits of industry, and proper use of recreation time. Can they be valued in dollars and cents? These are the aims of our school in developing youngsters. Jush how much it is worth for a youngster to reach adulthood with a proper conception and respect for citizenship cannot be valued.

Surely no better investment could be made in Democracy regardless of taxes by the 125 homes who are represented in this school. The parents view the development of their youngsters with pleasure and pride.

Credit for this school does not belong to any one group, but rather to the combined efforts of pupils, teachers, parents, and other taxpayers.

BUILDING THE BRIDGE FOR HIM

An old man, traveling a lone highway,
Came at the evening, cold and gray,
To a chasm deep and wide.

The old man crossed in the twilight dim,
For the sullen stream held no fears for him.
But he turned when he reached the other side,
And builded a bridge to span the tide.

"Old man," cried a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting your strength with building here;
Your journey will end with the ending day,
And you never again will pass this way.

"You have crossed the chasm deep and wide.
Why build you a bridge at eventide?"
And the builder raised his old gray head:
"Good friend, on the path I have come," he said,
"There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet will pass this way.

"This stream, which has been as naught to me,
To that fair-haired boy may a pitfall be;
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim—
Good Friend, I am building this bridge for him."

CLASS HISTORY

The fall of '39 found seventeen little pupils ready for the first day of school. They were Dean Baker, Treasa Baker, Emma Jane Brown, Lowell Thomas Brown, Max Connerely, Norma Craig, Billy Dorsett, Phyllis Fields, Paul Wayne Gehring, Joe Gray, Twila Grissom, Mary Key, Harold Dean Porter, David Roberts, Dennis Slatem, Bobby Stroud, Everett Todd, and Kathleen Fender.

Our teacher was Catherine Crane. We feel indebted to her because she was responsible for getting us off on the right foot.

In our first six years we gained four new classmates; Anna Dee Blake, Gloria Simmerman, Anna Pearl Brock, and Carolyn Gore, and lost ten; Emma Jane Brown, Lowell Thomas Brown, Norma Craig, Phyllis Fields, Paul Wayne Gehring, Harold Dean Porter, David Roberts, Dennis Slaten, Everett Todd, Joe Gray, Max Connerely, and Kathleen Fender.

During this time Cora Clemens, our third and fourth grade teacher, carried on with the work that Mrs. Crane had started, and following her was Byron Bridges, our fifth and sixth grade teacher.

Entering the seventh grade, our first year in the new school building we found that we had gained two of our old classmates. They were Joe Gray and Max Connerely. In the eighth grade we gained three more, Earl Brock, Pearl Brock, and Louis Mitchell.

When we walked bravely into our room, pushing our way through the boys and girls in High School, whom do you think we saw, Mr. Byron Bridges. He was to have the privilege of teaching this group of half-grown boys and girls. Mr. Bridges taught us very well, and corrected us when necessary through the seventh and eighth grades. Mr. Bridges was our sponsor in the seventh grade and Mr. May was our sponsor in the eighth grade.

Entering High School, we found we had a class of twenty three, eleven of which were new. They were; Harold Crane, Saraphine Brassine, Rosalee Johnson, Vivian Wilson, Hildred Taylor, Leon Sipes, Agnes Tomey, Lloyd Jewell, and Norma Hitchcock, all from Trinity. Norma Craig from Scottsburg and Rose Marie Lynch from Heltonville. We lost Earl Brock, Louis Mitchell, and Gloria Simmerman.

Again Clovis May was our sponsor whom we liked very much for his short stories which he told almost every day.

In our Sophomore year we had a class of only sixteen. Rosalee Johnson, Vivian Wilson, Hildred Taylor, Leon Sipes, and Anna Pearl Brock dropped out of school. Pearl Brock, Norma Craig, and Rose Marie Lynch all moved away, Gloria Simmerman came back to dear old Williams High after attending one year at Terre Haute.

In this our second year of high school, we had a sponsor who was just as green about riding donkeys as we were when we entered the Freshman year. He was coach, Carl Bailey.

In our Junior year we found that we had one new student, Donald Bays, who came from Bedford. Gloria Simmerman dropped out at Christmas to get married.

Lowell Meyer, our sponsor directed us and gave us advice through the year. He was well known through school for his suprise tests.

We started our Senior year with fourteen pupils, four of which went through school here at Williams, excluding when the school house burned down. They were: Billy Dorsett, Treasa Baker, Mary Key, and Dean Baker.

Directing us this year are Mr. Weathers and Mr. Riggle. Mr. Weathers is the faculty advisor of the annual.

Representing us through high school on the basketball squad were: Dean Baker, Max Connerely, Billy Dorsett, Joe Gray, Harold Crane, and Bobby Stroud.

CLASS PROPHECY

My wife and I sat down to an evening of enjoyment. She has her knitting and I being a retired school teacher had my evening paper. I read the headlines and then it seemed as I ran my eyes over the paper I saw some topics that interested me. I eagerly read the articles and retold them to my wife.

Bedford, Indiana, January 18, AP It seems as though the Bedford team is made up of Tucker's. This may seem strange to have one family make up the first team, but Mrs. Morrell Tucker explained how she happened to have eight boys in three years. 'They had twins four times!' Mr. and Mrs. Tucker both say they wouldn't take a million dollars for any one of them.

This is the only family known with four sets of twins in the world and the only basketball team with all brothers on it.

Mrs. Tucker is the former Mary Key of Williams.

New York City, N. Y. Jan. 18, AP The Trans Atlantic Airlines reported today that the pilot with the best record in their company is Dean Baker. A Hoosier lad.

Mr. Baker has flown with this company for a number of years. His regular route is to and from New York and San Francisco.

This pilot hails from Williams, Indiana. Most of his crew come from the Middle West with the stewardess coming from the same town; her name is Carolyn Gore.

Peoria, Illinois, January 18, AP Bill Dorsett, another boy wonder, started with an interest in his Dad's Service Station and now has the biggest chain of service stations in the United States.

Dorsett's Generally Good Gas is known almost from coast to coast. Bill is known almost as well since he doesn't have one big office, but travels from one station to another.

Brazil, South America, Jan. 18, AP Bobby Stroud, one of the better known engineers is starting on one of the hardest jobs ever assigned ~~to one engineer~~. He wouldn't give any hints as to what it was now, but said he would later.

Mrs. Stroud says she likes it so well they might make it a permanent home.

Brazil, South America, Jan. 18, AP Mrs. Bobby Stroud is writing her book, 'My Five Lovable Brats' under her maiden name, Twila Grissom.

Mrs. Stroud says that her bok is written in her spare time after taking care of her children and husband. She says that a civil engineer husband really makes good material for her book.

Lafayette, Indiana, Jan. 18, AP The Purdue Boilermakers are enjoying their most successful year they have ever had under Coach Harold Cranes guidance.

The Boilermakers are the top ranking team of the U. S. and are almost sure to play in the Olympics this year.

The Boilermakers are heavily favored to win over Coach Diddles Kentucky team in their game Saturday night.

Miami, Flerdia, January 18, UP Miss Norma Hitchcock announced today she will marry the new president of the Bell Telephone Company in the Little Church Around The Corner on January 23.

Norma is an overseas telegraph operator here in Miami.

The bride-elect says they will reside in her fiance palatial home on Long Island after the return from their honeymoon.

Reno, Nevada, January 18, UP Hardwick's Sleepy Head Motel, one of the finest Motel's in Nevada is owned and operated by Mrs. Clifford Hardwick. She is one of Reno's most prominent citizens.

Her husband, Clifford, is an actic member of the Merchant Mari Mrs. Hardwick says that she is expecting her husband home anytime now to be with her and her two sons, Bob and Leon.

Mr. Hardwick will retire some time this month.

Anna Dee says that she likes to run her one hundred forty room Motel and is planning on expanding it in the coming fall.

Nashville, Tennessee, Jan. 19, AP The Grand 'Ole Opra will open their show tonight with their Master of Ceremonies and Star Singer as Lloyd Jewell back from his vacation.

Lloyd has been on his annual vacation for the last month. He has been singing at several state and national organizations while he has been gone.

Helena, Montana, January 19, UP The Brassine Designing Shop has started a new trend in fashions for the coming year. Miss Brassine had her dress revue yesterday afternoon in the Hollywood Bowl.

Mrs. Astor the best dressed woman for the preceeding year says that from now on her war robe for the coming year will be a Brassine fashion.

Miss Brassine announced today that she will be married January 21 to a Montana rancher.

Twin Bluffs, Montana, Jan. 18, AP Gray Meadows Farm won the national contest for the best breed of milking cows. Holsteins. The winner, Joe Gray, said that down through the years he has kept some of the nations finest holsteins just for a hobby but he adds that it is a paying hobby.

Mr. Gray also owns a beef ranch near El Paso, Texas. He says he is trying to get as good as a beef cow as he has holsteins.

San Francisco, Calif. Jan. 18. AP Miss Carolyn Gore, A Trans Atlantic Airliner hostess said that she had just completed 400 flying hours. She has been to Calcutta, London, Paris, Toyko and the Hawiian Islands. She says that being an airline hostess is one of the most interesting jobs. She took the San Francisco-New York job to be near her fiance, Mr. Dean Baker who is the pilot of her plane.

Cleveland, Ohio, January 18, AP The Sunshine Times one of the leading Democrat papers has just celebrated its 10th anniversary with a bonus to the staff, a free paper for every one.

Mr. Connerley, the editor, said that he had a two million reading public. Mr. Connerley has just announced that after being a playboy for all these years he fianally will settle down some time this month to married life.

Montezuma, Iowa, January 18, UP Dr. T. L. Baker one of this cities best obstretician has delivered one set of quadruples, one set of triplets, three sets of twins besides delivering seventy other babies in the past year. Doctor Baker is enjoying a large practice here in Montezuma.

Dr. Baker also says she will marry her assistant doctor sometime in April. Then she will be a housekeeper for the rest of her life.

"One second late will miss a train. Almost right will miss perfection. Good enough may lose you your opportunity. Unless your work is right it's wrong."

CLASS WILL

We the Senior Class of "51" being of sound mind, (we know that it is sound because it always rattles) and body assuming that it is a custom to leave a last will, Hereby grant the following personal possessions, (that is, what few we have) to those we leave behind.

I, Twila Grissom, will my grouchy nature to Anna Jean Parker, my big feet to Mary Lou Wilking, and I think I shall keep my bangs because Bobby might take a liking to them in years to come.

I, Bobby Stroud, will my position on the ballteam to Russell Stroud, my ability to get Bookkeeping to anyone who wants it, my love for Literature to Harold Dean Parker, and I guess I will keep Twila because she is the only girl in the whole WILLIAMS HIGH SCHOOL that I ever loved.

I, Mary Key, will my ability to be a good automobile driver to Donald Reeder, my neatness to Mrs. Phipps, my ability to do things in class and get by with it to Leslie Grissom, and as for Morrell I will keep him.

I, Lloyd Jewell, will my job in the kitchen to Robert Bratton, and my position as Mimeograph operator for the school paper to Harold Baker, and my seat in History class to Ruby Brock.

I, Carolyn Gore, will my position as editor of the school paper to Perry Spreen, and my desk in Shorthand clase to anyone smart enough to take it.

I, Dean Baker, will my seat in the Senior room to Charles Brinson, and my position on the ballteam to Richard Crane, to Leroy Padgett my Bookkeeping book, I guess I will keep my girl, and I will my old razor to Lowell Chandler, because I think he could use one.

I, Saraphine Brassine, will my height to Sally Cornett, my slimness to to Connie Baldwin, and as for my many boyfriends I shall keep them, (May be, I could fool one of them.)

I, Max Connerly, will my position on the ball team to Richard Moser, my being able to drive to school every day to Leslie Grissom, my wavy hair I leave to the Junior girls, and I will Anah to myself since this seems one sure way to get a girl.

I, Anna Dee Blake, will my small stature to Leona Grissom, my stubbornness to Dana Craig, and as for Clifford, W-e-l-l, I'll let him decide that; (that is if the Army doesn't decide for him.)

I, Joe Gray, will my position on the ball team to Roe Hardwick, my job in the kitchen to anyone who wants it, and my job as business manager of the yearbook to any Junior unlucky enough to get it.

I, Treasa Baker, will my white yell skirt to anyone lucky enough to get it, my curly hair to my sister Iva, and I will my girdle to Gloria Jean Bateman, because I don't have much use for it since I'm on a diet.

I, Billy Dorsett, will my friendliness and good nature to Feliece Roberts, my position of being a good ball player I leave to Harry Baldwin, and I'll keep my big ears because I don't think anyone would want them.

I, Norma Hitchcock, will my position as office girl to Frances Honeycutt, my Senior books to Bonnie Barnes, my height to Dorothy Sherfick, and I will keep my tonsils because I have them pickled away in a fruit jar.

I, Harold Crane, will my ability to drive more carefully and slowly to Harold Dean Parker, my seat in Shorthand class to anyone silly enough to take it; and I think I shall keep Mae Lou.

We, the class, will our thanks to the faculty for their tolerance or our shortcomings--may some of their burden now be lifted.

We, hereby reason of his seniority, designate and appoint as our sole executrix, Mr. Walter Riggle.

SCHOOL DAYS

School days, school days,
Dear old Williams school days,
Shorthand, History, and Bookkeeping too;
Will help us to learn, we know it is true.

But that's not my reason in writing this verse,
'Tis the Senior's school days, I'd like to rehearse.
There's little Billy, with a big friendly smile,
And he washes cars, every once in a while.

Tall, slender Bobby, with very black hair,
If he can't get the car, he'll ride the old mare.
Short, black hair has Twila Jean,
With Bobby, she is often seen.

Treasa Baker, who is president of the Senior class,
She may be a talker, but she's a nice little lass.
Quiet and sedate you'll find Joe Gray,
When the sun shines he really pitches hay.

Always laughing and hollering with glee,
That is the way, you will find Mary Key.
Lloyd Jewell, who is very full of life,
Will make some man a very good wife.

Jolly and friendly, you'll find Carolyn Gore,
If you want to see her; just go to Smith's store.
Dean Baker is a fine and likeable chap,
He'll fly off the handle at the drop of your hat.

Studious and pleasant you'll find Norma Hitchcock,
But if she gets mad, she'll knock off your block.
For one who is both friendly and sane,
I'm sure your pick would be Harold Crane.

Anna Dee is short and very thin,
And she wears a smile, especially for men.
Max is very happy with his blond, curly hair,
But he wouldn't be so happy if the curls weren't there.

For some one who is very keen,
Why not pick on Sara Brassine?
So this is the last of our Senior Class,
And you can view them as they pass.

We've come to the end of our high school days,
Now we shall go happily on our separate ways.
And when in the twilight of coming time,
May you sit and dream of this rhyme of mine.

--Mary Key

A PEP SESSION

HIGHLIGHTS OF GAMES

On Monday October 2, there was a great commotion in the gym. Someone opened the door, and guess what they found. There in the gym was Mr. Johnson and about thirty boys. Well, I guess you know what that meant.

Basketball season was just starting. After Mr. Johnson got all of the boys rounded up and breifed on this years work. They began tc see that they had a lot of hard work ahead.

The boys spent most of their time running and getting in shape the first week or two.

There were eleven Freshmen who moved up to the second team squad. This year are six Seniors, three Juniors and one Sophomore on the first team squad.

This year our season hasn't been good in either softball or basketball. Our opening game this year was with Clearsprings, who is tough and one of the biggest teams that we have scheduled. We were defeated by a margin of 60-28.

The following night we played the Shoals Jug Rox, again we were defeated. The final score was 52-32.

The next game we played was with the Orleans Bulldogs. There was a terriffic battle, but the visiting Bulldogs seemed to a better basket eye. Again we were defeated. The final score, 36-26. Our first win was over the Heltonville Bluejackets. The Bulldogs defeated them by a margin of 53-44.

On December the eighth, the Bulldogs defeated Campbellsburg Warriors. The score was 44-37.

Next year our gymnasium will be one of the best in the county and although our personnel will lack size, the improved playing conditions should help them considerably and team improvement should be made accordingly. Another factor that will have much to govern the ability of next year's team is whether or not the boys want to cooperate in obeying training regulations. In this category there is a lot of room for improvement, and the big question is, "Do the boys of our school have the will power and backbone to follow training rules religously." Until they do, Williams Will never have more than just a fair team. Nevertheless we enjoyed our basketball season in spite of losing more games than we won.

A Difficult Task

Upon the completion of the Sectional Tournament Mr. Johnson and Mr. Weathers decided that the Basketball year was not yet completed so the boys were divided into committees for preparing and devouring a feast composed of:

Goose a La King
Navy Beans with Picnic Ham Tossed Salad

The boys donned their frilly aprons and put on their hair nets. They told themselves that this was going to be a snap.

The beans were only burned a little. Not so much that they couldn't be eaten, just enough to taste it. Potato peelings were all over the floor instead of in a pan or the wastebasket. They tossed most of the salad on the table and had to pick it up and put it back in the salad bowl. They tried to take hot kettles off the stove without pot-holders. Some of the boys had a hard time eating with their burned and cut fingers. But who cares about a mess and some burned fingers as long as they have all they want to eat? The boys didn't. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Weathers helped them with their cooking and cleaning.

All went home with a greater respect for their mothers, and certainly did appreciate this attempted meal.

Juniors and Seniors Visit Legislature

On February 15, Johnny Colglazier took the junior and senior classes to Indianapolis to visit our State House and the activities in the legislature. We left Williams at 8:30 a.m. and after an uneventful (although there were some slick spots) trip, we arrived in Indianapolis at 11:05.

Our first stop was at the State House and Mr. Ed Haverly told us to come back at 1:30. From the State House we went to watch station WIBC conduct a man-on-the-street program. The announcer was Jim Shelton.

After lunch, we went back to the State House and attended the afternoon session. We were introduced to the House of Representatives by Mr. Haverly and to the Senate by Mr. Ellis. During the afternoon we all learned alot about our state government that we could never learn from a textbook.

We arrived home at about 8:00 o'clock tired and happy.

OUR BUS DRIVERS

Homer Sims has driven a bus for 14 years. His route is south of Williams and includes those pupils across the river.

Earnest Hall has driven a bus for 19 years. His route is divided; he brings those pupils who live on the Indian Creek road to the school then goes southwest of Williams, just below the Walter Jones house for the remainder of his route.

John Colglazier has driven a bus for 14 years. His route is over the Stumphole Bridge road.

Basil Baker has driven a bus for 13 years. His route is down into Martin County to Trinity Springs.

Marvin Dorsett has driven a bus for 16 years. His route is the ridge road and some of those on the highway near his home.

We are proud of our bus drivers for their willingness to be of any service they can to further the education of the pupils of Williams Grade and High School. Some of them have had to go around the high waters which cut them off from their regular route of travel to get their students to school. They have taken time from their other work to take classes to school picnics and other school activities. In doing this they have proven that they are interested in the youth of today and have made the days of the past a little brighter because of this interest.
